Enviva Data for Trader EUTR Compliance

As a supplier of forest products in the EU market, Enviva understands the European Union Timber Regulation (EUTR) requires you to take proactive measures to reduce the risk that you are buying or selling products which may contain fiber from illegally harvested forests.

To support your due diligence system and assist you in maintaining compliance with EUTR regulations, Enviva is providing you with the following information which should constitute reasonable data that our pellets are low risk for being produced from illegally harvested fiber.

Official Trade Name: Wood Pellets (4401.31)
Country of Harvest: Southeast United States
